TRICHINA.

The Kaskaskia Bottom Strewn with Dead Hogs-More than Ten Thousand Porkers Die of Trichina.

[Correspondence St. Louis Globe 1 CHESTER, ILL., Peb. 23, 1874. Hogs, great and small, in the Kasmonths or more, have been severely afflicted with trichina, which has been wide-spread and terribly fatal —a geuine epiderale among the porkers. The fatality of the disease has indeed been foarful. For a time more destructive.
